

SUSTAINABILITY ASSESSMENT AND SOCIAL ACCEPTANCE OF AQUACULTURE PRODUCTION Zaragoza (Spain), 24-28 February 2020

Hour	Monday 24	Tuesday 25	Wednesday 26	Thursday 27	Friday 28
9:00-10:00	Opening	2.3.2. Markets and price dynamics in seabream and seabass	2.2.1.4. LCA Practical work: Presentation of results and discussion	3.1. Comparative analysis of licencing regulation in different countries / 3.2. Participative decision making and stakeholders'	Social acceptability of aquaculture development 4.2. Case study (working groups)
10:00-11:00	1.1. Aquaculture development: drivers and bottlenecks/inhibitors		2.2.2. Modelling site suitability for improved site selection	3.3. Environmental assessment and monitoring methods to check regulation compliance
Coffee break
11:30-12:30	1.2. Integrated carrying capacity / 1.3. Need for improved regulation and governance / 1.4. Public perception and acceptance	2.3.3. Market impact of mass media	2.4. A critical assessment of production methods for improving aquaculture sustainability	3.4. Recommendations and guidelines from TAPAS EU for best licencing practice	Social acceptability of aquaculture development 4.2. Methods and tools (working groups)
12:30-13:30	2.1. Social dimension of aquaculture at farm and industry level	2.2.1. Environmental Impact and Life-Cycle Analysis (LCA)		3.5. Certification and beyond compliance
Lunch break
15:00-16:00	2.3.1. Economics of production and management	2.2.1. LCA. Cont.	2.5. New product development: potential market and consumer requirements	Social acceptability of aquaculture development	Social acceptability of aquaculture development
16:00-17:00		2.2.1.4. LCA Practical work: Presentation of the practical + Work session		2.2.1.4. LCA Practical work: Presentation of the practical + Work session	4.1. Introduction to social acceptability and links with territorial development
17:00-18:00	4.1. Debate with participants
18:00-19:00					